Report of Principal and School Improvement Council

Waccamaw Middle School maintains its effort to facilitate a matchless educational experience for our students. Waccamaw Middle School has also achieved Adequately Yearly Progress for the second year in a row. The use of Professional Learning Teams, Balanced Literacy throughout the curriculum and a daily self selected reading opportunity greatly aided our students in earning this accolade. The dedication, expertise and professionalism of our faculty have also garnered a second Palmetto Gold ranking in two years for Waccamaw Middle School.

80 of our students have participated in various athletic teams, clubs and fine arts programs. Many of our Middle School students were invited and participated well at the high school level. For the third year in a row, the Waccamaw Middle School band has received an Outstanding Performance Award and a Superior Ranking at district, regional and state competitions. Waccamaw Middle School also successfully defended its Championship title at the district Academic Bowl. Waccamaw Middle School Art students also took two top honors at the Superintendent’s Art Awards. The Waccamaw Middle School Student Council received two state recognitions for their community efforts during the 2010-11 school year.

Waccamaw Middle School sponsored several non-profit, humanitarian efforts this year. Our Relay for Life Team raised funds for cancer research, our student council supported worldwide efforts to raise funds and send impoverished children from around the globe to school. Waccamaw Middle School benefitted through many partnerships this year. Through the efforts of local businesses, our PTSA and SIC, the students of Waccamaw Middle School were supported in the classrooms as well as the community. Looking towards the future, we continue to strive to provide our students with a rigorous educational challenge to better prepare them to become responsible citizens and lifelong learners.

School Adequate Yearly Progress

NO

This school met 17 out of 19 objectives. The objectives included student performance, graduation rate or student attendance, and participation in the state testing program.

Definition: As required by the United States Department of Education, Adequate Yearly Progress specifies that the statewide target is met for "All Students" and for the following subgroups: Racial/Ethnic, Subsidized Meals, Disability, and Limited English Proficiency in the areas of English/Language Arts and Mathematics, as well as meeting the statewide target for "All Students" for attendance or graduation rate.

School Improvement Status

School Improvement Key
NI	Newly Identified-The school missed adequate yearly progress (AYP) for two years. Sanction: Offer school choice.
CSI	Continuing School Improvement-The school missed AYP for three years. Sanctions: Continue school choice and implement supplemental services.
CA	Corrective Action-The school missed AYP for four years. Sanction: Continue school choice and supplemental services. The school district takes a corrective action.
RP	Plan to Restructure-Sanctions: Continue school choice and supplemental services. Develop a plan to restructure. If the school misses AYP the next year, the school implements the restructuring plan.
R	Restructure-The school missed AYP after two years of corrective action. Sanctions: Implement the restructuring plan. Continue school choice and supplemental services.
DELAY	The school met AYP in all subgroups and the indicator for one year, thus the delay provision applies. The school remains in the same status as last year and is referred to as in "Delay."
HOLD	The school made progress for one year in the subject area that identified the school for school improvement. The school remains in the same status as last year and is referred to as in "Hold."
